

Due Date: _____

Analyzing Dramatic Elements: California State Standard Reading 3.10

In dramatic literature, playwrights use dramatic elements like dialogue, monologue, scene designs (this is the physical appearance or “the look” of the play) soliloquies, asides, and character foils to express beliefs, feelings, motivations, and various other ideas.

Your task will be to identify and analyze the function of one of these dramatic elements in the literature you are reading. Write a multi-paragraph essay that is well-organized and supported with textual evidence.

Paper Requirements:

- Length and Structure
 - Write a 2 page paper
 - Develop a minimum of 4 paragraphs
 - Include an original title
- Source Material
 - Incorporate a minimum of three in-text citations (utilize proper parenthetical citations)
- MLA Format
 - Provide page numbers
 - Double space the entire paper
 - Set font size to 12
 - Utilize font “Times New Roman” (or similar)

Learning Outcomes:

In this paper, students will...

- Introduce the purpose of the paper and signal how it will proceed
- State a clear thesis
- Support and advance the thesis with source material
- Support and advance the thesis with original analysis
- Incorporate source material into the flow of ideas
- Develop logical sequence of ideas presented in the paper
- Utilize proper grammar and punctuation